Project Title: Integrated Counseling for Labor Development and Empowerment in Korça Municipality

The overall objective of the project is to collaborate with the National Agency for Employment and Skills (NAES) in delivering an intensive counseling model that supports 80 vulnerable jobseekers in Korça Municipality.

This project aims to strengthen inclusive employment and skills development in Korça Municipality by implementing an intensive six-month counselling program in collaboration with NAES. The program will provide 80 vulnerable jobseekers with personalized career guidance, skills training, and mentorship to enhance their employability. Additionally, eight beneficiaries will participate in professional courses or internships with local businesses, aligning with their individual employment plans. The initiative fosters partnerships with local authorities, NGOs and private sector stakeholders to ensure long-term sustainability.
