Project Title: Empowerment Pathways: Tailored Support for Vulnerable Jobseekers

The overall objective of the project is to enhance employment outcomes for vulnerable jobseekers across the municipalities of Durres, Kavaja, Vlora and Mallakastra

The project aims to improve employment outcomes for vulnerable jobseekers in the municipalities of Durres, Kavaja, Vlora, and Mallakastra through intensive counselling and targeted support, focusing on enhancing the skills and employability of 200 vulnerable individuals, integrated social services, and mentorship. The project will facilitate job placements through partnerships with local businesses and employers, ensuring that participants are matched with roles that suit their skills and aspirations. It strengthens collaboration between municipal social services, regional employment offices, and businesses to create a sustainable support network for long-term employment solutions.
