Project Title: EL-LMI (Empowering Lives – Labour Market Inclusion)

The overall objective of the project is that groups at risk women and men, boys, and girls, have access to inclusive and tailored employment opportunities, in line with the needs of the labour market in Kukës, Kruja Kurbin municipalities.

The project aims to enhance employment opportunities for vulnerable groups in Kukës, Kruja, and Kurbin by providing intensive counselling, vocational training, and job placement support for 200 beneficiaries. The project fosters self-assessment and motivational skills for learning and career development while enhancing the skills necessary for labor market integration. It assists in job preparation and serves as an intermediary for employment opportunities. Through continuous monitoring and mentoring, it ensures effective adaptation to labour market needs and strengthens structured referral system. 7 public institutions will be capacitated to implement the “Social Re-integration programme” model in the municipalities of Kukës, Kruja and Kurbin.
